Katherine's Quest: One Woman's Journey to Elation by Pat Alva-Kraker

The world knew her as an international IT project manager, and a community leader. A successful Latina woman working in two male-dominated industries, IT and engineering. In order to be accepted, each morning Pat put on her two-piece skirt suit with pumps; making decisions from her analytical side and forfeiting her strong sense of intuition.

Then, after a 35-year career, Pat “woke up”, began her own journey of elation and donated 100% of her corporate “uniforms” to The Ladder Alliance and now chooses to live an empowered life.

Pat's passion for self-mastery and raising one's level of consciousness led her to the teachings of International messengers Dr. Wayne W. Dyer and Abraham Hicks.

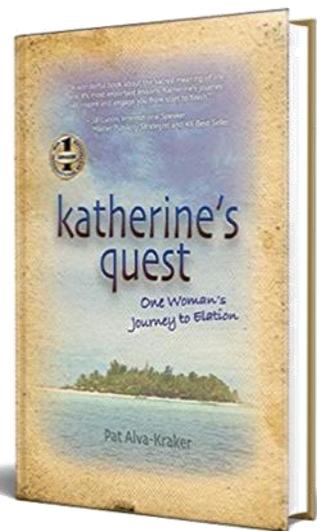

She followed their wisdom of always being of service, connecting with source and not worrying about the how. Pat's dedication has transformed her life and those participating in her Majestic Leaders Boardroom, Soulify Your Business programs and as audience members of her stage trainings. Pat's clients discover how to integrate their analytical and intuitive sides to create a business they love while experiencing a sense of renewed peace and joy in their life.

Throughout Pat's story-style book, Katherine's Quest: One Woman's Journey to Elation, she shares insightful musings that become the keys to living a fulfilling, meaningful and empowered life thus creating inner peace and confidence. Elation is a choice.

This world-changing book is tender, funny and essential to a woman's self-mastery.

Driven by the belief that personal elation, living according to your blueprint and connecting to your wisest self is a choice we make each day, she founded Majestic Coaching Group, LLC. Pat Alva-Kraker has always had a passion for self-mastery and assisting women become their best self.

Her company coaches and mentors women transitioning from IT, Real Estate and Project Management careers. Majestic Coaching Group LLC creates a safe and encouraging space where women can tap into and honor their intuitive self; expand their capacity to become stronger leaders; make a greater impact with their business; and collaborate with other like-minded women.

The Psychic Yellow Brick Road: How to find the Real Wizards and Avoid the Flying Monkeys by Corbie Mitleid

Why do they end up going from reader to reader, never finding what they need? Because they didn't have a reliable GPS (Guide to Psychic Services) to take with them on their search.

But that doesn't have to be YOUR story. You can follow The Psychic Yellow Brick Road instead! Covering material as basic as Psychic Boot Camp and The Ins and Outs of a General Reading, Corbie also talks about "red flags" to watch out for, angels and spirit guides, mediumship and more.

The Psychic Yellow Brick Road is your field guide to navigating the world of professional psychics: sharp, clear, and full of practical information for those who are intrigued by the idea of using intuitive assistance, but have no idea where to start. And whether you're a first-time client or a veteran explorer of the metaphysical realms, you'll find clear and useful information and suggestions to make every session with your intuitive a valuable one.

Psychic guidance is an art. Don't settle for a forgery.

Corbie Mitleid has seen it all – the rip-offs, the truth-tellers, and the workaday psychics who may not have marquee names but are skilled and valuable nonetheless. Active as a professional psychic medium since 1994, Corbie has experienced clients from every angle: Rookies. Seasoned co-creators. Skeptics. And she's dealt with the desperate, the delusional, and the ones who think psychics are a shortcut to gaining their heart's desires without lifting a finger for themselves.

Why do some people have terrible experiences?

Earth Energy Meditations: Awaken Your Root Chakra—The Foundation of Well-Being by Susan Shumsky, D.D.

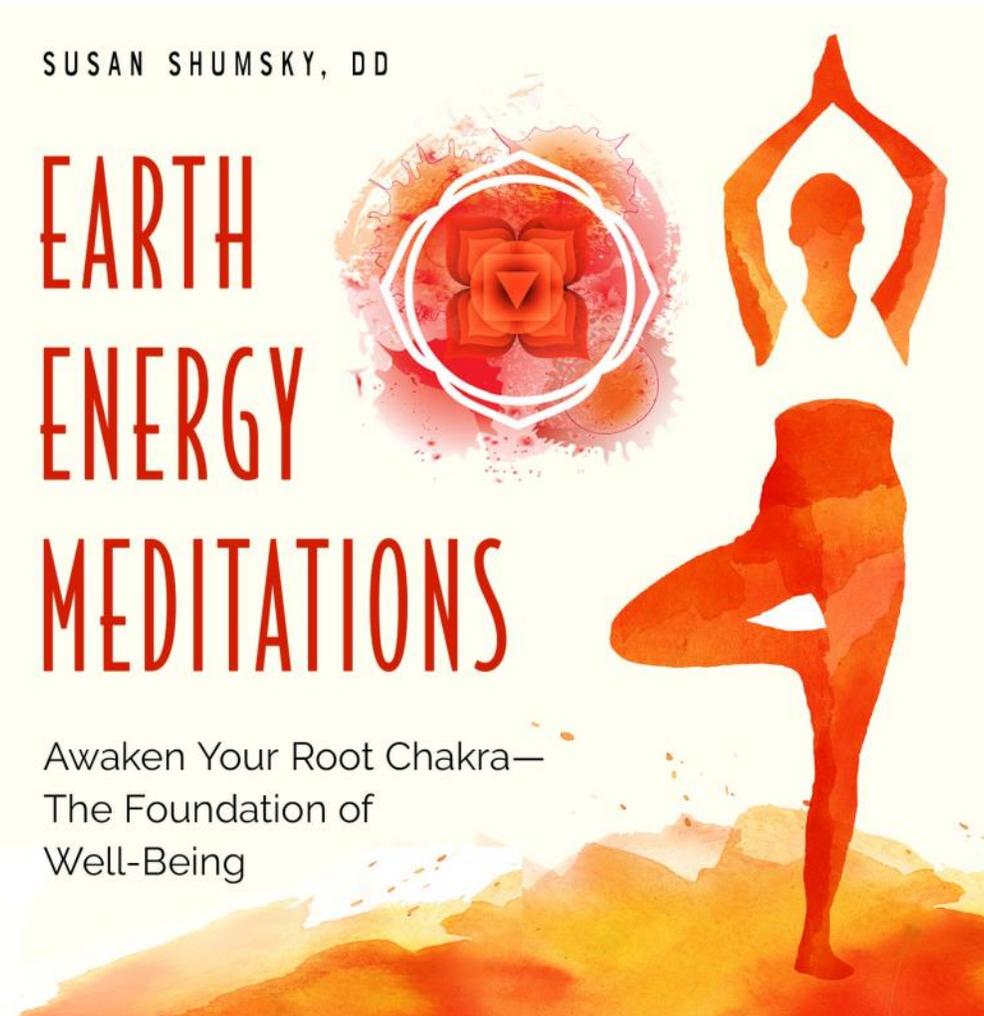

The energy center known in Sanskrit as muladhara is called the root chakra. It is located in a layer of our subtle body called pranamaya kosha, at the base of our spine in the tailbone area. The root chakra is our connection to the earth and to humanity at large. When this chakra is closed, muddled, and unhealthy, we experience fear, timidity, worry, doubt, anger, frustration, panic, self-loathing, survival mode, and defensiveness, and we manifest unhealthy habits, addictions, narcissism, aggressive behavior, bullying, and a sense of entitlement or victimhood.

Earth Energy Meditations provides an answer to these maladies. It helps us reconnect with the earth and primal energies with powerful, easy to-use methods of guided meditation, affirmation, visualization, breathing, and physical movements. By practicing these techniques, we can reap the benefits of an open, clear, and healthy root chakra.

We can return to a sense of stability, security, protection, and centered well-being. We can enjoy strength of character, integrity, perseverance, persistence, self-acceptance, self-worth, practicality, healthy survival instinct, and prosperity.

Awaken the root to yourself and your connection to the world with Earth Energy Meditations.

Are You an Energy Sponge?

Because of the unbelievable demands we face daily, there is a new pathology: “Highly Sensitive Person (HSP)” —empathic people who absorb energy as a sponge absorbs water. Do you feel drained by the surrounding polluted physical and mental atmosphere? Do energy vampires and toxic relationships suck you dry? Perhaps you feel bodily pain when sensing people’s negative emotions. Congestion in crowded situations may overwhelm you. You might feel drained by people all day, until, by evening, all you can do is collapse.

Dr. Susan Shumsky has dedicated her life to helping people take command of their lives in highly effective, powerful, positive ways.

She is the best-selling author of 14 books, published by Red Wheel/New Page, Simon & Schuster, Random House Penguin, and Skyhorse. A pioneer in the human potential field, she has spent 50 years teaching thousands of people meditation, prayer, affirmation, and intuition. Her book titles include Exploring Meditation, Ascension, Instant Healing, The Power of Auras, The Power of Chakras, Awaken Your Third Eye, Awaken

Your Divine Intuition, Color Your Chakras, Miracle Prayer, Divine Revelation, and Maharishi & Me.

Dr. Shumsky is a highly respected spiritual teacher, award-winning author, and founder of Divine Revelation, a unique field-proven technology for contacting the divine presence, hearing and testing the inner voice, and receiving clear divine guidance. For 22 years, her mentor was Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, who was guru of the Beatles and guru of Deepak Chopra. Dr. Shumsky served on Maharishi's personal staff for 6 years.

Aries

(March 21—April 19)

Ten of Wands

Defined Meaning: On the Ten of Wands, we see a bent figure trying to carry ten heavy poles. They are ranged so closely in front of him that he can't even see where he's going. Nothing exists for this man except his burdens and responsibilities. How true this is for so many today! We take on so much, trying to do all the things that need to be done. We think that if we can hang on until the weekend (or vacation, or end of the semester) then we can finally relax. The weekend comes, and the overload continues.

In readings, the Ten of Wands can be a sign that you are pushing yourself too hard. If your days are an endless round of duties and tasks, then you need to lighten up for the sake of your health and well-being. Cut back and take on only those activities that give you pleasure. If you love your work, but it's all-consuming, you may be too narrowly focused in one area. Balance your life with other interests.

The Ten of Wands can also stand for times when you have to assume the lion's share of responsibility. You may be blamed or left holding the bag. On the other hand, you may have to step forward and take charge because you are the only one capable enough. Rightly or wrongly, the cleanup will fall to you.

The Ten of Wands indicates that your life is going to be tougher than usual for a time. You will have to fight uphill for every little gain. Each step will feel like a struggle. When you see this card, be kind to yourself. Lighten the load wherever you can, and let others help you. You don't have to handle everything yourself.

Taurus

(April 20—May 20)

Nine of Pentacles

Defined Meaning: The woman on the Nine of Pentacles is taking a leisurely stroll through the gardens of her estate. She is clearly a lady of refinement and grace, so it is incongruous to see on her left hand a bird trained to hunt and kill on command. Falconry is an unusual hobby for a gentlewoman, but it is the key to the special nature of this card.

On one hand, the Nine of Pentacles represents all that is most gracious, high-minded and civilized. Art, music and other forms of beauty are very much part of our physical world (Pentacles). Coins are present in this scene, but they are toward the ground. The business of life is important, but we don't have to focus on practical matters all the time. We can also enjoy the finer things of life. In readings, the Nine of Pentacles can imply an interest in these areas. It is also a sign that you may need to reject the coarse or offensive and seek the highest.

The Nine of Pentacles can also be a sign of discipline and self-control. This woman enjoys her cultured life because she has mastered her baser instincts. Her impulses work for her because they do not rule her. The falcon symbolizes all that is dark and unruly in human nature. Our shadow side can serve us well, but only when it is directed. Sometimes the Nine of Pentacles suggests that you must show restraint and self-control if you are to achieve your best efforts. You may have to "sacrifice" for the moment, but the results will be worth it.

This card is also a sign of self-reliance. Sometimes you must trust our own ability to handle a situation. Resist the temptation to let others do for you. You need to take matters into your own hands. Our elegant lady has done just that. She trusted in her own grit and determination, and now she enjoys all the best life has to offer.

Gemini

May 21—June 20

Three of Wands

Defined Meaning: On the Three of Wands, we see a figure standing on a cliff looking out over the sea to distant mountains. From this height, he sees all that lies ahead. This is a card of vision and foresight. When we want to see farther, we climb higher. By going up, we increase our range and remove ourselves from the immediate situation. We detach and gain perspective.

In readings, the Three of Wands can tell you to take the long view. Don't react to the heat of the moment, but step back and reconsider. See how the present fits into the greater picture. This card asks you to be a visionary - to dream beyond current limitations. It can indicate premonitions or other intuitions about what is to come.

Taking the long view is an aspect of leadership - another meaning of the Three of Wands. When we see far, we have the knowledge to guide others to their best future. Someone who knows the way can show it to those who follow. When you see the Three of Wands, know that now is the time to accept your vision and be confident that you can lead others to it.

A leader not only sees far, but he is willing to go there first, if necessary. The Three of Wands is also a card of exploration. Compare this figure to the Fool who is also on a cliff edge. The Fool steps out in innocence, not realizing he is going to fall to his fate. The adventurer on the Three of Wands is also willing to step out, but with full awareness of what he is doing. His courage is more informed, if less spontaneous. The Three of Wands encourages you to move fearlessly into new areas. Let the ships on your horizon take you far out into unknown seas.

Ace of Swords

Defined Meaning: The Ace of Swords is a symbol of possibility in the area of intelligence, reason, justice, truth, clarity and fortitude. In readings, it shows that a seed of clear understanding has been planted in your life although you may not yet recognize it. When the seed sprouts, it could take almost any form. It might be a compelling idea, desire for the truth, call to justice, or a need to be honest. On the outside, it could be an offer, gift, opportunity, encounter or synchronistic event.

Sometimes this Ace stands for a challenge that will test you in some way. Life never goes smoothly for long. Sooner or later a hurdle shows up, and the Ace of Swords can tell you when one is coming. This card is also a reminder to you to face your challenge, whatever it is, with courage, honesty and a firm resolve. In every challenge, there is opportunity.

When you see the Ace of Swords, examine your life to see how its clean, sharp energy could work for you. Think about your problem objectively. Look for situations that are unjust or confusing and resolve to set them right. Above all else, commit to being honest and ethical. This card tells you that you do have the inner resources to overcome all obstacles and find the truth of your situation. That is the promise of the Ace of Swords

Ten of Swords

Defined Meaning: The Ten of Swords appears to be a card of terrible misfortune, but surprisingly, it often represents troubles that are more melodramatic than real. The man on this card has quite a few swords in his back. Wouldn't one be enough? Isn't ten a little excessive? Perhaps this gentleman's suffering - though sincere - is exaggerated as well.

One meaning of the Ten of Swords is hitting rock bottom. When one disaster follows another, we feel devastated at first, but eventually we throw up our hands and laugh. It's so bad, it's funny! In films, the hero says, "What else could possibly go wrong?" and we know that's a signal for the bucket of water to fall on his head. When you see the Ten of Swords, know that the last bucket has fallen, and you can expect a turn for the better.

This card can also show when you're in victim mentality. You're certain that the whole world is picking on you just to make your life difficult. I picture the man lifting his head and saying, "You think you've got it bad...a cut on the finger. I've got ten swords in my back...count 'em - ten!" Then he drops his head back down with a sigh. When we're in victim mentality, we think everything is horrible, hopeless and impossibly unfair.

Being a martyr is also a favorite Ten of Swords activity. In this case, the man would say with a weak wave of his hand, "No...you go on. Have fun. Don't think about me. I'll just stay here with these swords in my back...but I want you to enjoy yourself." Being a martyr in this sense is not the same as making a sacrifice for another with no strings attached. With the Ten of Swords, either is possible, but doing a good turn for someone else is more satisfying without the strings.

I don't mean to make light of misfortunes because, of course, there are many real tragedies in the world. Sometimes the Ten of Swords indicates a sad event, but you know when this is the case. There is not even a hint of laughter in your heart. Most of the time the Ten of Swords has a lighter side. It is as if your Inner Guide is gently kidding you about how you are handling your own personal tale of woe. When you see the Ten of Swords, check your attitude and know you've reached the point where things will definitely begin to look up.

Virgo

August 23—September 22

Seven of Swords

Defined Meaning: The Seven of Swords is tied to the Five of Swords because both cards involve separation from others. On the Seven we see a man tiptoeing away from society (the colorful pavilions). He's taken some swords and seems rather pleased with his successful heist. He gives the impression of having secret, solitary plans.

This card sometimes represents the "lone-wolf" style - the desire to run lone and free. In films, the lone-wolf hero always acts totally on his own. He discovers, investigates and solves every problem using only his own wits and resources. He believes he's successful because he ignores the fumbling efforts of ordinary people.

In readings, the Seven of Swords can be a sign that you or someone else wants to be a lone wolf. You feel that you will be more effective and comfortable on your own. This approach is useful when you need to bypass an ineffectual group or assert your independence, but it can also be troubling. We cannot be happy and productive for long without some commitment to others. If you feel inclined to act alone, be sure this isolation is really working for you.

Sometimes the Seven of Swords means that you are running from something - commitment, responsibility, hard work, love. You may be procrastinating, letting problems slip because you don't want to deal with them. Sometimes we just have to face what has to be faced. The Seven of Swords lets you know when you might be making things worse for yourself and others by running away.

The Seven of Swords can also indicate a hidden dishonor - a choice you or another has made that does not do justice to the highest. We all make wrong choices that we want to hide. Some of these are minor, some serious. Your inner voice will tell you when this is happening. When you see the Seven of Swords, take a good look at what you're doing because hidden dishonors will eat away at your happiness and self-respect.

Knight of Wands

Defined Meaning: On the positive side, the Knight of Wands is full of energy and life. He's never afraid to try something new and will reach for all the gusto he can. Others may shake their heads at his crazy stunts, but they still admire his courage and passion. He's sexy and irresistible...always the charmer. On the negative side, this Knight is a little too sure of himself and his abilities. He tends to be shallow and thoughtless. Don't expect a deep commitment from him. He's also reckless and irresponsible. He acts without thinking and constantly gets in trouble because of his temper.

In readings, a Knight of Wands shows that his confident, passionate style is involved in the situation as an aspect of you, someone else or the atmosphere in general. You need to ask yourself, "Is this Knight's energy helping or hurting?"

If his style is evident, then balance is needed. Is your confidence really cockiness? Are you angry and impatient all the time? Are you crazy about someone whom you know is going to break your heart? Is your company rushing into something risky with no preparation? It may be time for a change.

If this Knight's energy is missing, a dose of passion and daring may be called for. Are you in a rut? Try something new. Are you always planning every last detail? Wing it next time. Are you working too hard? Go out and have some fun. Let the Knight of Wands introduce you to his world of adventure, excitement and risk.

Scorpio

October 23—November 21

Nine of Swords

Defined Meaning: It makes sense that the figure on the Nine of Swords is in bed because it is during the night that our griefs and regrets come to mind most intensely. The quiet darkness strips away the distractions of the day, leaving us alone with our thoughts. Who has not lain awake at 4

A.M. filled with worries that refuse to go away? The Nine of Swords represents this unhappiness which can strike us at any time.

Unlike the pain of the Three of Swords which seems to come from without, the Nine of Swords represents the pain that we generate from within. What tortures we put ourselves through when our fears and doubts overwhelm us. Worry is probably the most common. Have I done enough? Will everything work out OK? What am I going to do? The thoughts go round and round - impossible to turn off.

Guilt is another source of pain. When we have done something that we feel is wrong or hurtful - or failed to do something we think we should have - the distress can be very real. It is worse when nothing we do relieves the bad feelings or makes them go away. Finally, there is just pure anguish. Sometimes the pain of life is so total that all we feel like doing is crying into our hands.

Needless to say, the Nine of Swords is not the most pleasant of cards, but it doesn't always indicate major distress. Often it is just a sign of some element of unhappiness or trouble - a vulnerable spot in your life. This card is often a warning from your Inner Guide that the path you are going down may be a difficult one. If you approach the Nine of Swords in this spirit - as a caution sign - you will be able to use it constructively. Examine your situation carefully to be sure you are making the best choices. Even a small change can make all the difference.

Sagittarius

November 22—December 21

Queen of Wands

Defined Meaning: The personality of the Queen of Wands combines the positive fire energy of the Wands suit with the inward focus of a Queen. She is the one voted most popular in her class. She is always attractive and often good-looking in the classical sense. Her warm smile and easygoing manner bring her lots of friends and admirers. Her energy is contagious, and her enthusiasm, total. No matter what the task, she tackles it with wholehearted dedication and commitment. Nothing gets her down. She is always upbeat and cheerful - ready to look for the positive in the situation. Her life is full and busy, and she prefers it that way. She loves to be going and doing. She keeps up this pace because she is radiantly healthy and fit. She is often a good athlete, being naturally strong and coordinated. Although she's never arrogant, the Queen of Wands has a deep faith in her own abilities. Her quiet self-assurance comes from the knowledge that she can accomplish whatever she sets her mind to.

In readings, the Queen of Wands asks you to think and feel as she does. For example: Do you feel attractive? Do you believe in yourself? Are you full of energy? Can you shake off the blues? Are you gung ho about life?

This Queen can also represent a man or woman who is like her, or an atmosphere of cheerful and confident enthusiasm. In a reading, she tells you that her special energy has meaning for you at this time. Let yourself be inspired by this Queen in whatever form she appears in your life.

Capricorn

December 22—January 19

Ten of Pentacles

Defined Meaning: On many cards, we see a cluster of buildings off in the distance. In the Ten of Pentacles, we finally arrive in that village - in the middle of the marketplace. The family we see is carrying on the affairs of everyday life. A patriarch, dressed in a luxurious robe, pats his hounds as he watches over the younger generations. A man and woman converse in passing as their child plays at their feet. Coins (money) are in the air.

The Ten of Pentacles stands for the ultimate in worldly and material success. Sometimes I jokingly call it the "fat cat" card because it reminds me of the aura of prosperity that surrounds wealthy men and women of business. This is the card you want to see if you are wondering how your latest enterprise will turn out. Wealth and affluence are yours.

When we achieve material success, we naturally want it to last. This is the conservative, Establishment side of the Ten of Pentacles. Why rock the boat when life is fine just the way it is? In readings, this card often stands for convention - following established guidelines and maintaining the status quo. Fat cats are rarely radicals; they love tradition and the tried-and-true. Sometimes it is important to trust the known ways, but only when change is inadvisable.

The Ten of Pentacles is also concerned with permanence. Change is an unavoidable part of life, but constant change is uncomfortable. We need stability and the chance to work for a secure foundation in life. In readings, this card may be telling you to concentrate on the long-term. Work toward a lasting solution. Now may be the time to settle down and make the arrangements that will work for you far into the future.

Aquarius

January 20—February 18
Knight of Swords

Defined Meaning: On the positive side, the Knight of Swords is a master of logic and reason. He has a keen intellect that grasps the fine points of any subject. He speaks clearly, directly and always with authority. His judgments are sure and free of emotion. Others rely on his lucid analyses of problems and solutions. On the negative side, this Knight is not a master of diplomacy. He can be downright tactless and rude. When he thinks you are wrong, you'll know it. He's convinced of his own superiority and has little tolerance for stupidity. He expects others to comply with his views. To him, feelings are irrelevant and illogical.

In readings, a Knight of Swords shows that his penetrating style is involved in the situation as an aspect of you, someone else or the atmosphere in general. you need to ask yourself, "Is this Knight's energy helping or hurting?"

If his style is evident, then balance is needed.

Are you always forcing your position on others? Do you get in trouble for saying what you think? Is your partner too cold and aloof? Do your colleagues tend to be critical rather than supportive? It may be time for a change.

If this Knight's energy is missing, a dose of clear-sightedness may be called for. Are you too emotional? Let your head rule your heart next time. Do you overvalue the opinions of others? Trust your own authority. Are you afraid to offend? Speak your mind. Let the Knight of Swords introduce you to his world of reason and self-assurance.

Pisces

February 19—March 20
Four of Swords

Defined Meaning: the Four of Swords is often a sign that you need to slow down and get some rest. If you are recovering from an illness, allow yourself quiet time to heal. Even if you feel completely healthy, you are risking getting sick if you don't take a break.

The Four of Swords also represents taking the time to think things over without hurry. It is important to step back and gain perspective. This is especially true when you are facing an ordeal or big event. You need quiet preparation time to gather your strength and center your energy. Picture an Olympic diver on the high board. She doesn't climb the ladder and then dash out. She stops, motionless as she readies herself for the burst of activity to come. This is the only way to bring the best to our endeavors.

Sometimes the Four of Swords implies that you are or could be shifting focus from the external to the internal. When we are silent, we can more easily go within. The knight in the picture appears to be praying or meditating deeply. Actually, he appears to be dead! For those who are addicted to activity, rest and quiet can seem like death, but that is certainly not the case. Stillness holds its own rewards, but they must be recognized and sought.

Moon Phases

December 2020

December 14—NEW MOON SOLAR ECLIPSE IN SAGITTARIUS

Although the energy of this lunation is bright, it is not a good time to start anything new or sign important documents. Luck is on your side!

Whatever is coming your way, it looks set to put a smile on your face. The New Moon in Sagittarius can mark the restart of fun after a period of feeling low. The energy is adventurous and even willing to take a few risks — but be careful you don't bet the farm on something here, as the wheel of fortune is still spinning! This card is about exploring life metaphorically, by exchanging big ideas with others or just thinking about your own philosophies. Perhaps it's time to change your mind about something important? It can also signal that a trip away is coming up, if that's something you're working to achieve. But the overall message of this card is that whatever happens next will be some sort of gift, even if that simply means widening your world view.

Attune to the Moon

Count your blessings — literally. Write them down or say them out loud.

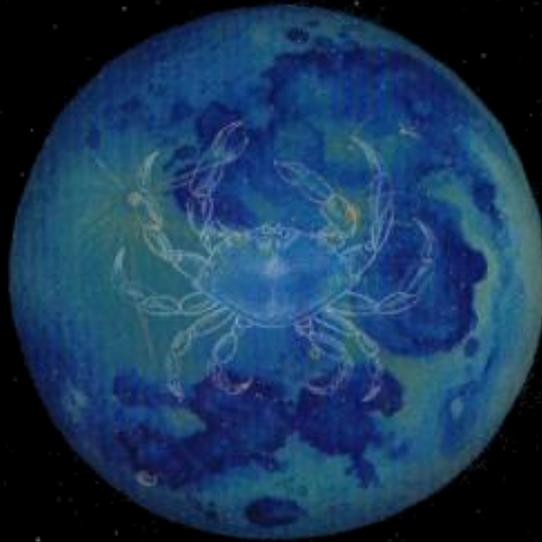

Additional meanings for this card:

- You need to laugh more!
- This is a wonderful time to start a course of study or teaching.
- Don't be narrow-minded.
- Start a week of gratitude practice (e.g. via Facebook, a journal or blog).

The teaching:

Sagittarius is the sign of fun, travel, exploration and the Great Cosmic Quest. It's the sign of big ideas — its energy is expansive, upbeat, lucky and Divine. The New Moon in Sagittarius exudes all this, as does this card whenever you draw it. Nothing is set in stone with Sagittarius and an optimistic energy could attract all manner of good things if you tap into the energy by expecting the best.

December 29—FULL MOON IN CANCER

A lunation that is best channeled when we spend time taking care of ourselves as we focus on our feminine needs and power. A personal issue reaches resolution.

Things are likely to get very heated as Full Moon in Cancer is a super-emotional sign, so there could be something of an explosion of feelings around now or surrounding your question. It's important to be sensitive to other people when you pull this card; there are some very fine sensibilities around so tread carefully as you move towards your goals or dreams. This card indicates an especially feminine time. It also heralds the time to deal with any family issues coming up — nothing to worry about; it signals a challenge is now coming to an end. This card also suggests both that a domestic matter or private issue will soon come to a head, and that it's a great time to move house. The answer to your question lies in being a kind leader. This is the time for you to step up and agree to overcome your insecurities.

Attune to the Moon

It may be best to move towards what you want in a sideways manner.

Additional meanings for this card:

- Meditate to soothe heightened emotions.
- Don't be clingy.
- Stop sulking!
- Have you had enough family time lately?

The teaching:

The heightened emotions of the Moon-Cancer combination can't be ignored. However, Cancer is one of the Moon's two home signs (along with Taurus) so astrologically-speaking the Moon loves to be in this sign — in fact she rules Cancer. This means that with this card there's a sense that 'All is as it should be' or 'Don't worry, all will soon be well'.

Astrology Forecast December 2020

December starts with renewed connections making it hard to focus on the task at hand, and ends with enormous change at the socio-political level.

- 01 MERCURY ENTERS SAGITTARIUS
Communications become brighter, however, this shift can make it hard to focus on the task at hand when there are so many things and people to discover.
- 05 VENUS IN SCORPIO TRINE NEPTUNE IN PISCES
A sexy and dreamy aspect that could also cloud our judgement, making us unsure of what is real or not.
- 09 SUN IN SAGITTARIUS SQUARE NEPTUNE IN PISCES
A once-a-year negative aspect that could undermine our confidence as well as our immune system.
- 10 SUN IN SAGITTARIUS TRINE MARS IN ARIES
This trine makes this one of the best days to charge ahead and go for the gold.

Aeson's Classic Peanut Butter Blossoms

Bells to Blossoms is the official title for the new Hershey's Christmas commercial which was meant to retire the 31-year-old "Heartwarming the World" ad. Opening like the original, then changing to a father-daughter baking duo, the new ad has been slammed all over the internet as "...the last straw of 2020..." prompting Hershey's to co-run both ads. *

Ingredients

- 48 Hershey's Kisses Milk Chocolates
- ½ Cup of Shortening
- ¾ Cup Creamy Peanut Butter
- 1/3 Cup Granulated Sugar
- 1/3 Cup Packed Light Brown Sugar
- 1 Egg
- 2 Tbsp Milk
- 1 tsp Vanilla Extract
- 1½ Cups All-Purpose Flour
- 1 tsp Baking Soda
- ½ tsp Salt
- 1/3 Cup Additional Granulated Sugar, for rolling

Instructions

1. Preheat oven to 375°F and remove wrappers from Hershey's Kisses.
2. Beat shortening and peanut butter in large bowl until well blended. Add granulated sugar and brown sugar and beat until fluffy. Add egg, milk, and vanilla and beat well.
3. Stir together flour, baking soda, and salt. Beat into peanut butter mixture.
4. Shape dough into 1-inch balls. Roll in granulated sugar and place on ungreased cookie sheet.
5. Bake 8-10 minutes or until lightly browned. Immediately press a chocolate into center of each cookie. Cookie will crack around the edges.
6. Transfer cookies to wire rack.

Looking Ahead to 2021: The Psychic Perspective by Aeson Knight

As we wrap up 2020, and hopefully move forward into the new energy of 2021, we need to take in the energy and data so we can plan our goals, while also reflecting on this year. We have learned a lot from the hard energy of 2020. Reviewing and looking forward, the energy we are coming out of and moving into as we transition for 2020 to 2021 is broken down into its numerology, astrology, and tarot aspects.

Numerology

2020 Was a 4 Year

The year we are exiting had a focus on meticulously building a secure foundation for the future — affecting individuals, companies, social organizations, and humanity in general. A diligence seemed to pervade the world, one that is more aware of actions and their results. Method and details are were likely to be followed exactly.

The universal message of a 4's energy for a year resonates with a focus on today as it can influence the future. Attracting conscientious living, paying attention to details, and getting things done in a pragmatic manner. We were challenged to look at every detail of our life, from our work life to our social interaction, to how we define our bubble.

2021 Will Be a 5 Year

According to the data we see, the upcoming year's energy is about personal freedom and changes. Unexpected things will tend to happen. Change is acceptable and well tolerated. With this energy, you are more likely be focused on freedom, especially the expression of your individual freedom.

The universal message of a 5's energy for a year resonates with a personal sense freedom. Adaptable, taking a chance, trying out and learning new things, or pursuing a new interest.

Interpretation

I believe we will see a focus on the freedom we have missed, as far as interacting with people and places, after mid-summer. Many people will reconsider the freedom within their life, opting to redefine their lives, to reconsider their paths, and make decisions toward being more of what they want to get out of life, and less of doing what was assumed and expected.

Astrology

The year 2020 has been a rocky road for the whole year. What can we expect for 2021?

- Jupiter and Saturn conjunct in Aquarius

How do we define community, our people, our circle? What philosophy and vision guide us? At the end of 2020 and through early 2021, Jupiter and Saturn, the two arbiters of social consciousness, conjunct in the communal fixed air-sign Aquarius. Like the Sun and Moon on the New Moon, when two planets conjunct they begin a new chapter; this one instigates a 30-year revolution in our Aquarian concept of community and social responsibility.

Aquarius can bring stubbornness. Under this influence, fanatical people can run full steam ahead and start conflicts around political mind sets, their own worldviews, or religious theory....

- Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto in Aquarius

Jupiter and Saturn, and soon Pluto in Aquarius, call us to genuinely think globally and act locally. But this is just a taste—preparation for the big social and political work we will need to do when Pluto enters Aquarius in a few years, from 2023–2044. The last such relationship occurred was from 1777–1798, when the USA labored to form a country that embodied its Constitutional vision statement...

Look for changes to the way we look at the government vs our behavior as humans. I feel we will turn our attentions globally, examining what is happening to the world, its affects on us as individuals, our countries, and the world in its entirety.

“Fasten your seatbelts, it’s going to be a bumpy night”

This iconic line from one of Hollywood’s most famous actresses,, Bette Davis, a woman known for bringing kicking and screaming change to the world of acting that treated people like commodities, generally sums up a lot of what 2021 will be.

- Mars Conjunct Uranus, Square Jupiter. Mercury Retrograde. Venus conjuncts Pluto, Saturn, and Jupiter

The New Year kick-starts metamorphosis as motivating Mars forms an exciting, uncooperative conjunction with change-maker Uranus— squaring Jupiter, January 20–23, just as America inaugurates a president. We will either be working with a new government or building up resistance to old ways. Mercury retrogrades 1/30– 2/20 and lets us catch up, reorganize, and repair. Our community and our beloveds will need pragmatic loving and compassionate action as Venus conjuncts Pluto, Saturn, and Jupiter through mid-February.

- Mercury Enters Aquarius

February ends as Mercury enters Aquarius and gives voice to the Jupiter-Saturn debate. We can sketch out the grand landscape but may become too far-sighted. We must carefully look for the needs of our attention and what we want our focus to be. You will feel much more focus on who is in your tribe.

- Venus Conjunct Neptune

Because we have been so busy with politics and community, it is important that we put relationships and creativity back on the front burner in March as Venus conjuncts Neptune and calls us back to our heart and our muse.

When Venus dances with Neptune we see creations of beauty and love. This Conjunct will cause you to reflect to your opening of heart and mind to open the that created side if you would like to create a business of art in any way this would be a good time to do it.

- Venus conjuncts Uranus. Venus Squares Saturn and Pluto Retrogrades

April we can feel the enthusiasm build towards new possibilities. Spring fever can call us into new relationships and revolutionary adventures as Venus conjuncts Uranus. Discontent can be productive as fire simmers under the kettle. Towards the end of April, watch for a political crackdown or relationship issues around control wherever people feel insecure, as Venus squares Saturn and Pluto retrogrades. Build real security instead.

- Jupiter hops in and out of Pisces and Aquarius. Jupiter and Saturn Square Uranus

Jupiter enters Pisces on May 13, retrogrades June 20 and reenters Aquarius July 28–December 28. Jupiter and Saturn both intermittently square change-maker Uranus throughout the year, keeping politics and tectonic plates restless; we may be unable to settle, but that helps us continue an evolution. Transformation is inevitable, but which way that change goes will be up to us.

- Lunar Eclipse in Sagittarius

A lunar eclipse in Sagittarius on May 26, and a solar eclipse in Gemini on June 10, emphasize the need to celebrate true diversity—the real gift of myriad different voices and perspectives. Let us celebrate by finding someone way outside of our comfort zone and respectfully share stories.

- Retrograde Season: Pluto, Saturn, Jupiter, Neptune, Uranus, and Mercury

Every summer brings retrogrades; this one brings quite a lineup: Pluto turns retrograde April 27, Saturn on May 23, Jupiter June 20, Neptune June 25, and Uranus on August 19. Mercury retrogrades January 30–February 20, May 29–June 22, and September 26–October 18. These retrogrades ask us not to push forward but to hold our ground, renew, garden, and review the events of the year. Take time to investigate, fix mistakes, clarify problems, and fine-tune plans.

- Venus and Mars in Leo

From June 26–July 22 Venus and Mars are both in extroverted Leo; they stay active throughout the summer and inspire personal and political drama/melodrama. Life is performance art. Summer romances have a certain unrealistic flare; arts festivals can flourish, and the arts change our cultural understanding. Politics will be either heart-centered or ego-grandstanding.

- Mars Trine Pluto and Saturn

We get a fresh sense from September 6 on that we have work to do, and it is time to get back to it as Mars trines Pluto and Saturn. Do not get discouraged if old problems need our attention—ones we thought we had already conquered—as October dawns with six planets and a few asteroids retrograde.

- Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto station direct. Mars in Libra Trines Jupiter, Squares Pluto

Between October 6–18 Mercury, Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto create tumult as they all station to turn direct. Then the channels clear and give us a green light forward. Mars in social-justice-loving Libra then trines Jupiter, squares Pluto, and nudges us to clear up misunderstandings and heal a rift.

- Mars in Scorpio Opposes Uranus. Mars Enters Sagittarius. Venus Conjunct Pluto

If conflicts are not resolved now, they may come to a boil after Mars enters Scorpio and opposes energizing Uranus through November. If we are not in a fight, this aspect powers our efforts. Mars enters Sagittarius on December 13 as Venus conjuncts Pluto; together they encourage us to finish the year with a flare of competence, forgiveness, and travel in mind, body, or spirit. Come back to that deep Aquarian understanding that we are unique selves intricately connected to all our relationships

Interpretation

Astrologically, 2021 is going to be a busy, bumpy year, calling on us to focus on who our tribe is, to look far into the future and make choices that will define our world 30 years from now, while also asking us who we really are, while also asking us to reflect and heal ourselves, all at a time when society will take a lot of inner work, including finding ourselves and our place of belonging.

Tarot

Knight of Swords

On the positive side, the Knight of Swords is a master of logic and reason. He has a keen intellect that grasps the fine points of any subject. He speaks clearly, directly, and always with authority. His judgments are sure and free of emotion. Others rely on his lucid analyses of problems and solutions. On the negative side, this Knight is not a Master of Diplomacy. He can be downright tactless and rude. When he thinks you are wrong, you will know it. He is convinced of his own superiority and has little tolerance for stupidity. He expects others to comply with his views. To him, feelings are irrelevant and illogical.

In readings, a Knight of Swords shows that his penetrating style is involved in the situation as an aspect of you, someone else or the atmosphere in general. you need to ask yourself, "Is this Knight's energy helping or hurting?"

If his style is evident, then balance is needed. Are you always forcing your position on others? Do you get in trouble for saying what you think? Is your partner too cold and aloof? Do your colleagues tend to be critical rather than supportive? It may be time for a change.

If this Knight's energy is missing, a dose of clear-sightedness may be called for. Are you too emotional? Let your head rule your heart next time. Do you overvalue the opinions of others? Trust your own authority. Are you afraid to offend? Speak your mind. Let the Knight of Swords introduce you to his world of reason and self-assurance.

The Hanged Man

The Hanged Man is one of the most mysterious cards in the tarot deck. It is simple, but complex. It attracts, but also disturbs. It contradicts itself in countless ways. The Hanged Man is unsettling because it symbolizes the action of paradox in our lives. A paradox is something that appears contradictory, and yet is true.

The Hanged Man presents to us certain truths, but they are hidden in their opposites.

The main lesson of the Hanged Man is that we "control" by letting go - we "win" by surrendering. The figure on Card 12 has made the ultimate surrender - to die on the cross of his own travails - yet he shines with the glory of divine understanding. He has sacrificed himself, but he emerges the victor. The Hanged Man also tells us that we can "move forward" by standing still. By suspending time, we can have all the time in the world.

In readings, the Hanged Man reminds us that the best approach to a problem is not always the most obvious. When we most want to force our will on someone, that is when we should release. When we most want to have our own way, that is when we should sacrifice. When we most want to act, that is when we should wait. The irony is that by making these contradictory moves, we find what we are looking for.

Eight of Wands

The last card is the eight of wands. motion. His staff is the agent of power that initiates events. Moses' staff reminds me of the wands on this card.

They are a symbol of the onset of action and its effects. Before acting, we think, imagine, speculate, talk, and dream. This is the realm of air - the sky. Then, finally, we decide to make our move. We bring our ideas down to earth and put them into action.

In readings, the Eight of Wands is often a sign that now is the time to declare yourself. All the elements are ready and will work for you if you do not hesitate. The iron is hot - so strike! If events are in motion, they will proceed rapidly. You may feel caught in a whirlwind, but soon the dust will settle, and you see how your plans have fared.

The Eight of Wands also stands for the arrival of news or information. You may see or hear something important. The news could show up in a disguised form, so stay alert. Pay attention to everything that comes your way for a while.

This card also signifies endings. Sooner or later all activities run their course. The eight wands on this card not only symbolize putting events into motion, but also bringing them to a close. They appear to be ending their flight by coming down to earth. If you see the Eight of Wands in a reading, it may be time to conclude whatever you have been doing. Celebrate the past but prepare to move on to something new.

Interpretation

Looking at the cards we see that sometimes we may not be the best diplomats, but we need to watch our goals as we move out of this year with scars and battle wounds, and possible battle losses. We will have a time to reflect them we will move on to new opportunities and grow.

I feel we will see changes in government, both over the next 4 years and beyond, as well as changes at the local level. These changes will regard freedom, and these changes will mean some things will come to an end, and it is time in their cycle to do so. Many things may seem to end, but with every ending is also a beginning, a new cycle. The world view we must focus on is finding ways to move forward with 2021.

Summary

The upcoming year is about change, not only in focus, but also how we define who we are and the continual growth as we begin seeing changes in the global community. Change that will bring people together, will bring the lessons we have learned from work life balance and just how connected we are. It is going to bring out a lot of focus on our lives and embrace of tribal interlinking and a renewed understanding of the butterfly effect. A more careful consideration of our actions and their affect, not just you or your family, but throughout our community and around the world.

Additional Thoughts & Feelings

- That we will also see growth in medical technology and changes in how we look at the human mind.
- We will see a change in the money markets around March that could be a little fear inducing, but if you are in the markets then you should ride the tide for benefits.
- That we may lose more governmental officials this year.
- That we will see a rise in heart attacks in the summer for a temporarily unknown reason, later determined to be an effect of some infected by COVID-19. Additionally, we will find that the name is more a placeholder as it will be connected to another virus, one that was seen in the mid-1990s.
- That there will be changes in the human nature and its connection to the internet.
- Advancements in cell phones and how we interact with them, including possible interlinking to the human ear, removing the need for speakers on the phone itself, as well as headphones or Bluetooth to participate in conversations.
