Dreaming
March 2022*

Why don't I just step out and slip into something more spectacular?

- Liberace

This calendar provides all the major astrological aspects this year. Highlighting every time each star changes signs, as well as every planet moving in and out of retrograde,

Mar 01 — Sun in Pisces sextile Uranus in Taurus

A day of pleasant surprises that stimulate our minds, hearts, and imagination.

Mar 02 — New Moon in Pisces

This lunation brings us positivity and kindness, allowing us to be more generous with our time and affections.

Mar 02 — Mercury in Aquarius conjunct Saturn in Aquarius

A great day of self-improvement as you not only set goals for your own personal development but also look for ways to make the world better as well.

Mar 03 — Mars in Capricorn conjunct Pluto in Capricorn

A good time to get rid of things that no longer serve us and approach important matters realistically with a determination to succeed.

Mar 03 — Venus in Capricorn conjunct Pluto in Capricorn

An intense day for relationships as this combination can bring out obsession and possessiveness as well as deep passion. Things can escalate quickly.

Mar 05 — Sun in Pisces conjunct Jupiter in Pisces

An upbeat aspect that allows us to feel confident in our ability as long as we stay grounded in reality. Stay away from the spotlight if you want these good vibes to last.

Mar 05 — Mars enters Aquarius

After six weeks of hard work and deliberate energy, Mars in Aquarius pushes practicality aside in favor of erratic energy levels and unconventional methods that can be hit-or-miss when it comes to achieving our goals.

Mar 05 — Venus enters Aquarius

While romantic relationships may turn a little cold over the next four weeks, it's an ideal time for making new friends, be social, and helping those in need.

Mar 06 — Venus in Aquarius conjunct Mars in Aquarius

A good time to start creative projects, host a party, or look for love.

Mar 09 — Mercury enters Pisces

After weeks of thinking with our heads, it's time to think with our hearts as thoughts and communication become more empathic, creative, though a little impractical.

Mar 10 — Vesta enters Aquarius

With Vesta in humanitarian Aquarius, our eyes are open to the injustices of society. It's a good time to fight for freedom, equality, and justice.

Mar 13 — Sun in Pisces conjunct Neptune in Pisces

Spend a lazy Sunday reading a good book, watching movies, or indulging in your creative hobbies.

Mar 17 — Mercury in Pisces sextile Uranus in Taurus

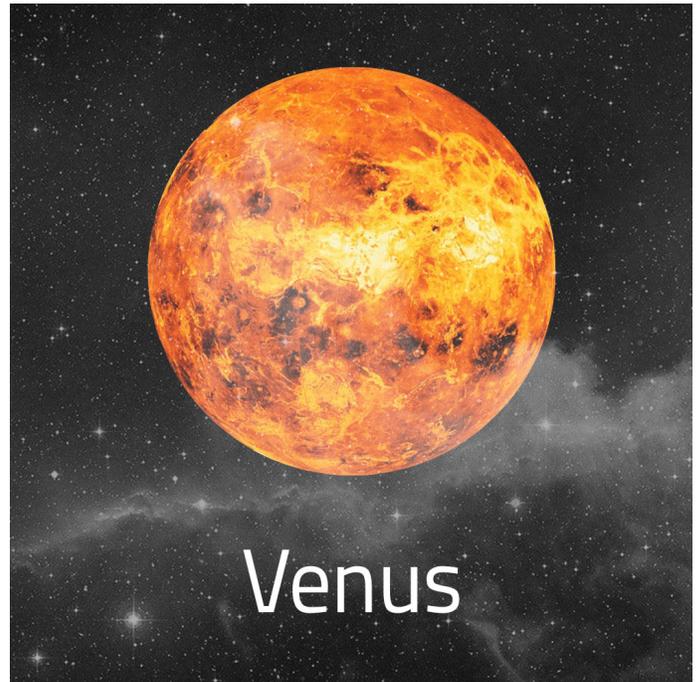

Psychic awareness is heightened along with all the other senses during this exciting aspect. A day of interesting discoveries when taking the road less traveled.

Mar 18 — Full moon in Virgo

After daydreaming about the future, the full moon in skillful Virgo brings us the power of organization so we can make dreams and reality.

Mar 18 — Sun in Pisces sextile Pluto in Capricorn

A strong aspect that will increase power and determination to success—as long as we don't abuse it.

Mar 19 — Venus in Aquarius square Uranus in Taurus

This tense aspect will have us walking on eggshells as anxiety rules the day. Trying to calm our frayed nerves will be difficult.

Mar 20 — Sun enters Aries/Spring Equinox/Astrological New Year

The first day of both spring and the astrological calendar. The sun is exalted in Aries, giving us a boost of energy and enthusiasm as we start the new zodiac cycle. The energy for the next four weeks will be confident, passionate, and combative as we fearless charge into any situation.

Mar 20 — Mercury in Pisces conjunct Jupiter in Pisces

Keep your eyes peeled during this gentle aspect. Staying quiet but alert can help us observe things that will become useful information for us later.

Mar 22 — Mars in Aquarius square Uranus in Taurus

This volatile aspect can leave us feeling rattled when our emotions get the best of us. Temper tantrums can explode even in the calmness of settings.

Mar 23 — Mercury in Pisces conjunct Neptune in Pisces

Watch out for sweet talkers during this aspect. It's easy to be manipulated with a few compliments, so trust actions, not words.

Mar 26 — Mercury in Pisces sextile Pluto in Capricorn

After a week of deception, we can finally have enough clarity to see the truth in others with confidence. Make alliances with people you really trust.

Mar 27 — Mercury enters Aries

Watch what you say (and how you say it) for the next two week when the planet of communication is in bold, brash Aries. Words are spoken with confidence and conviction but not with a lot of thought.

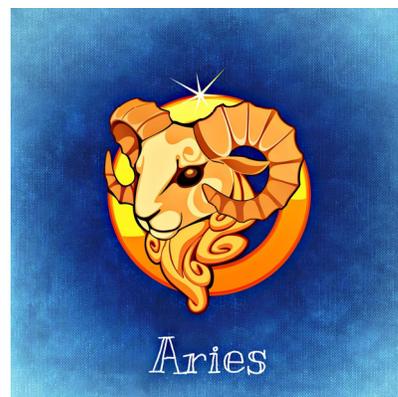

Mar 28 — Venus in Aquarius conjunct Saturn in Aquarius

Newly formed relationships start to get more serious as you learn who your real friends are during this aspect.

Mar 31 — New moon in Aries

Despite being near April Fool's Day, the new moon with Aries is nothing to joke about as we get ready to act. This is an ideal night to create a solid plan and take small actions to achieve your goals for the astrological new year.

Every 28 days the moon makes a complete cycle through our zodiac, each time she shows us her lesson because the moon is so close to us, her effects are felt deeper, and with each movement, she brings us a lesson to improve our life.

Mar 02 — New Moon in Pisces

This lunation brings us positivity and kindness, allowing us to be more generous with our time and affections.

This moon speaks of dreams and romance, of soulmates and poetry. It suggests there's a new start coming your way that's connected to a matter that leaves you feeling somewhere between having your head in the clouds and being in a totally altered state. There could be confusion and disappointment if that's what you've had before and that's what you're expecting. However, if you're onto a good thing then wish hard because the words of your soul and your heart could help bring about the manifestation of Pisces your dreams. If all that sounds a little wet and watery, then that's Pisces for you. This is the last sign of the zodiac, and the New Moon in Pisces card can suggest a last-ditch chance to make your dreams come true.

Attune to the Moon

Use your feelings to guide your way (logic won't work right now).

Face your fears — they may be holding you back.

This situation is being healed.

It's time to surrender to the Divine — chant 'Om Namō Narayana'.

Avoid being deceptive or willingly deceived.

The Lesson

Pisces is the sign of reveries and mysteries, or depths of emotion, idealism, and hopeless romantics. It is the sign of water and the unconscious — its energy is deep, like watery depths. The New Moon in Pisces indicates a time to listen to your feelings and to allow your emotions free rein. Whatever you're feeling as you pull this card is more likely than the truth, unless you've been kidding yourself somehow — and only you know if that's the case or not.

Mar 18 — Full moon in Virgo

After daydreaming about the future, the full moon in skillful Virgo brings us the power of organization so we can make dreams and reality.

It's time to be really honest with yourself and understand what's lead you to ask your question. Have you been humble to the point of being self-effacing? Humility is good but it can go too far, and drawing this card suggests you may be underrating yourself. You don't have to be flash, just quietly certain that you are good enough. At the other end of the scale, you also need to honestly answer this question: have you been too picky? The Full Moon in Virgo card needs some truthful answers. Once you've given them, it should Virgo be easier to see how you got where you are. Your next step should then be more obvious to you. Pay attention to the details. Hard work brings results.

Attune to the Moon

Find a balance between the cosmic and the mundane in your daily life.

Worrying too much will attract more things to worry about.

Have you been overly critical? An apology may be in order.

Stop second-guessing yourself.

Raise your karma by doing something good for someone else.

The Lesson

The Full Moon in Virgo is a time to declutter your life, your home, and your office. It's the time to sort what's good in your life from what's not serving you. It's also the time to clear out your energies via salt baths and meditations, and to practise getting more grounded, by walking barefoot. No matter when you draw this card, it's a reminder that any time is a good time to start living a healthier life.

Mar 31 — New moon in Aries

Despite being near April Fool's Day, the new moon with Aries is nothing to joke about as we get ready to act. This is an ideal night to create a solid plan and take small actions to achieve your goals for the astrological new year.

It is time to take action

The flame is lit! A wonderful new start beckons and you are on the right track. Drawing this card is a superbly positive sign if there is something you want to happen in your life. Take this card as a big 'Yes!' from the Universe. This is the time to really tune in to your dreams. You may still have a long way to go (after all, Aries is the first sign of the zodiac) but you're on your way. Determination, self-assertion and bravery are called for, but the hot fire of Aries is driving you towards success in whatever endeavor

Aries you are asking about. The caution? Do not go too fast and forget your manners. Treat people well as you charge towards your goals — you'll create much better karma for yourself.

Attune to the Moon

Do not even think about giving up.

Do your best — and be happy with that.

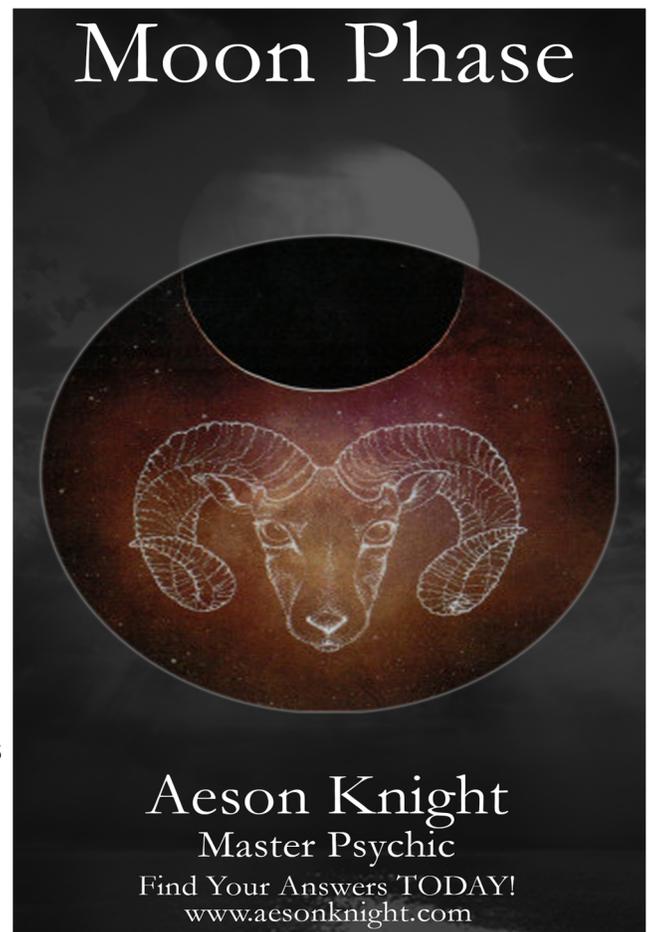

Avoid being brash right now.

You need a 12-month plan.

A new male is coming into your life.

The Lesson

Aries is the first sign of the zodiac, so the New Moon in Aries is the first of the 12 or 13 New Moons of the year. If you're committed to working with all the lunations, then the New Moon in Aries is the right time to start, and drawing this card — no matter when you do it — signifies it's also the ideal time to start your Moon work, such as setting intentions.

This is just a snapshot of your life. Schedule a reading with Aeson and he will be happy to take a deeper look into your question and worries!

Aries March 21 - April 19- Five of pentacles

ARIES

Defined Meaning: The two figures on the Five of Pentacles are cold, hungry, tired, sick and poor. They show us what it feels like to be without - to lack the basic ingredients of life. This is the specter that haunts so many in our world - a reality that is all too immediate. Those of us who are more fortunate may not have experienced this extreme, but we still recognize suffering. When we do not have what we want and need, it hurts.

In readings, the Five of Pentacles can represent several kinds of lack. First, there is poor health. It is hard to tackle life's challenges when we do not have our vitality and strength. This card can be a signal that you are neglecting the needs of your body. You are moving away from complete physical well-being, so you must take steps to discover and correct the problem.

This card can also be a sign of material and economic setbacks. There is no doubt that life is harder when we lack money or a decent job. When we are struggling to make ends meet, all other problems are magnified. Even if we are comfortable, we can still feel insecure, afraid that misfortune will take away all that we have worked for.

The Five of Pentacles can also represent rejection or lack of acceptance. We are social animals and feel pain when excluded from our group. We want to be included, not only for our emotional well-being but also for mutual support. Being rejected can mean physical hardship as well.

The Five of Pentacles relates to material lack, but it also has a spiritual component. From the stained-glass window, we can guess that these two figures are outside of a church. Comfort is so close at hand, but they fail to see it. The church symbolizes our spirits which are perfect and whole in every way. We are meant to enjoy abundance in all areas of life, but sometimes we forget that this is our birthright. Whenever you experience hardship, know that it is only temporary. Look for the spiritual center that will take you in and give you shelter.

TAURUS

Taurus April 20 - May 20- The Emperor

Defined Meaning: The figure of the Emperor says much about the essential qualities of this card. We see a stern, commanding figure seated on a stone-slab throne. His back is straight, and his eyes meet ours directly. He is confident of his complete authority to rule. The Emperor represents structure, order and regulation - forces to balance the free-flowing, lavish abundance of the Empress. He advocates a four-square world where trains are on time, games are played by rules, and commanding officers are respected. In chaotic situations, the Emperor can indicate the need for organization. Loose ends should be tied up, and wayward elements, harnessed. In situations that are already over-controlled, he suggests the confining effect of those constraints. The Emperor can represent an encounter with authority or the assumption of power and control. As the regulator, he is often associated with legal matters, disciplinary actions, and officialdom in all its forms. He can also stand for an individual father or archetypal Father in his role as guide, protector, and provider.

GEMINI

Gemini May 21 - June 20- Four of cups

Defined Meaning: Those who enjoy kayaking and other river sports know that there are areas of the river where the water flows in a dangerous circular motion. Instead of moving forward, it turns back on itself. In the same way, we can get stuck in emotional hydraulics. The Four of Cups represents such periods of self-absorption.

If you are self-absorbed, you tend to refer everything back to yourself - your own interests and desires. On this card, we see a man who is unaware of the cup being offered to him. He misses this gift because he's turned within. In readings, the Four of Cups can indicate that you are wrapped up for the moment in your own world.

In some situations, you must focus on yourself. When life is too stressful, you need to devote time and energy to yourself or you will feel swamped. The Four of Cups can represent a positive period of self-reflection and renewal. By taking the time to go within to dream, muse and reflect, you restore your emotional balance.

The Four of Cups is sometimes a sign of apathy. You don't really care much about anything. Your life seems stale and flat because you've lost interest in the activities that used to bring you pleasure. You're not motivated to make much of an effort in any direction. At such times, the Four of Cups can show that you're stuck emotionally. You need something to focus on that will so engage your mind and heart that your path down river becomes clear again. Open yourself to your surroundings. Soon you will be on your way again.

Cancer June 21 - July 22- King of cups

Defined Meaning: The personality of the King of Cups is a combination of the positive water energy of the Cups suit and the active, outward focus of a King. He is wise and understanding, with a deep knowledge of the world that comes from the heart. He is a teacher and way-shower who guides his students with loving attention. He cares about others sincerely and always responds to their needs with compassion. He heals with a gentle touch and a quiet word. He is calm and relaxed in all situations, seeming to know intuitively what is called for at any moment. Others turn to him for advice because they know he will listen attentively. There is always a peacefulness around him those others respond to. He is tolerant of all points of view and shows patience in the most trying circumstances. He gives others freedom to grow and develop in their own ways without asking anything in return.

In readings, the King of Cups asks you to take the kinds of actions he might take. For example: responding calmly in a crisis, using diplomacy rather than force, reaching out to help, or accepting a different point of view. This King can also represent a man or woman who acts as he does, or an atmosphere of caring, tolerance, and understanding. In a reading, he tells you that his special energy has meaning for you at this time. Let yourself be inspired by this King in whatever form he appears in your life.

Leo July 23 - August 22 – two of cups

Defined Meaning:

To understand the 2 of Cups, all you have to do is look at its image. A man and a woman are gazing at each other, ready to share their cups (emotions). Here is the very picture of romantic and sexual attraction. The energy between these two is almost palpable. The Two of Cups shows the beauty and power that is created when two come together. This is the card that lovers want to see, and, in fact, the Two of Cups is the minor arcana equivalent of the Lovers in many ways.

The Two of Cups has a deeper meaning as well. Whenever two forces are drawn together, there is the potential for bonding. This card can stand for the union of any two entities - people, groups, ideas, or talents. In readings, the Two of Cups tells you to look for connections in your life, especially those that are one-on-one. Now is not the time to separate or stay apart. It is the time to join with another and work as a partnership. If you are in conflict, look for a truce and the chance to forgive and be forgiven. If you are struggling with two choices or tendencies within yourself, seek to reconcile them.

Usually, the Two of Cups is welcome in a reading, but it can also sound like a note of warning. The energy of Two can be very compelling. If you have ever stood next to two people in love, you know what I'm talking about. They create between themselves a world of their own that can feel exclusionary to outsiders. "Two's company; three's a crowd." Make sure that the tendency to pair off is not creating disharmony in your situation.

Virgo August 23 –September 22 Queen of cups

Defined Meaning: The personality of the Queen of Cups combines the positive water energy of the Cups suit with the inward focus of a Queen. Because she has a sweet, loving and sensitive nature, the Queen of Cups has a kind word for everyone and never reacts with anger or impatience. There is a gentleness about her that soothes and calms. Compassion is her watchword. Her reactions to the world are guided by her feelings. In all matters, she lets her heart lead the way. She senses emotional currents and knows what others are experiencing without having to ask. She is never moody, but understands moods and their influence. She trusts her intuition and so is more open to knowledge that comes from within herself and beyond. She is often moved by the beauty and tragedy of life. The Queen of Cups feels deeply and has a reverence for all aspects of God's creation. Her love includes and embraces everyone and everything.

In readings, the Queen of Cups asks you to think and feel as she does. For example: Are you aware of the emotional climate? Are you feeling loving? Do you trust your heart? Have you received an intuitive message? Have you been moved by another's pain?

This Queen can also represent a man or woman who is like her, or an atmosphere of gentle love, acceptance and respect for feelings. In a reading, she tells you that her special energy has meaning for you at this time. Let yourself be inspired by this Queen in whatever form she appears in your life.

LIBRA

Libra September 23 - October 22- Ace of pentacles

Defined Meaning: The Ace of Pentacles is a symbol of possibility in the area of prosperity, abundance, trust, security, and groundedness. In readings, it shows that a seed of productivity has been planted in your life although you may not yet recognize it. When the seed sprouts, it could take almost any form. It might be a feeling of centeredness, desire for results or need to focus on practical matters. On the outside, it could be an offer, gift, opportunity, encounter or synchronistic event.

When you see this Ace, examine your life to see how its solid energy could work for you. Now is not the time for fantasy, drama or daring. It is a time to be real and centered. Seek out comfortable, reliable experiences that make you feel secure. Build a foundation of trust in your life both within and without. Your common sense will tell you what to do. Focus also on the natural world to help you stay grounded. Enjoy your body and all the joys of material existence.

The Ace of Pentacles can be a sign that you will be able to make your dreams real. Your ideas are ready to be turned into something tangible. Figure out what will work and make it a reality. You can now attract all the wealth you need to get your projects going. Tap into the material force of the Ace of Pentacles, and all your enterprises will flourish.

Scorpio October 23 - November 21- Six of wands

Defined Meaning: The Six of Wands is the minor arcana counterpart of the Chariot. Both of these cards represent moments of victory and triumph. Sometimes in life, all we want to do is win - to be number one. You can see this dream in the faces of athletes, politicians, and other champions as they step into the winner's circle. It's all been worthwhile. I'm the best. I've won!

In readings, the Six of Wands appears when you have been working hard toward a goal, and success is finally within reach. The recognition you have sought so long is yours. Now you can receive the acclaim, honor and reward that you deserve. If you do not feel close to victory now, know that it is on its way provided you are doing all you can to make it happen. The victory of this card does not have to involve beating someone else. You can triumph over yourself, the environment, or the odds.

The Six of Wands also represents a healthy self-esteem. Feeling good about your accomplishments is an important part of success, but too much pride can lead to arrogance and self-inflation. When you see this card, check that you are not feeling superior to others. It is easy to forget that individual achievement is not really individual at all. Our talents begin in the Divine, develop with the love and support of others, and only in the end express through us. How can we indulge in excess pride?

Sagittarius November 22 - December 21- Nine of pentacles

Defined Meaning: The woman on the Nine of Pentacles is taking a leisurely stroll through the gardens of her estate. She is clearly a lady of refinement and grace, so it is incongruous to see on her left hand a bird trained to hunt and kill on command. Falconry is an unusual hobby for a gentlewoman, but it is the key to the special nature of this card.

On one hand, the Nine of Pentacles represents all that is most gracious, high-minded and civilized. Art, music and other forms of beauty are very much part of our physical world (Pentacles). Coins are present in this scene, but they are toward the ground. The business of life is important, but we don't have to focus on practical matters all the time. We can also enjoy the finer things of life. In readings, the Nine of Pentacles can imply an interest in these areas. It is also a sign that you may need to reject the coarse or offensive and seek the highest.

The Nine of Pentacles can also be a sign of discipline and self-control. This woman enjoys her cultured life because she has mastered her baser instincts. Her impulses work for her because they do not rule her.

The falcon symbolizes all that is dark and unruly in human nature. Our shadow side can serve us well, but only when it is directed. Sometimes the Nine of Pentacles suggests that you must show restraint and self-control if you are to achieve your best efforts. You may have to "sacrifice" for the moment, but the results will be worth it.

This card is also a sign of self-reliance. Sometimes you must trust our own ability to handle a situation. Resist the temptation to let others do for you. You need to take matters into your own hands. Our elegant lady has done just that. She trusted in her own grit and determination, and now she enjoys all the best life has to offer.

Capricorn December 22 - January 19- Wheel of fortune

Defined Meaning: In Greek mythology, there are three women known as the Fates. They are responsible for spinning the destiny of each person at his or her birth. It is not surprising that the Fates are spinners because the wheel of fortune is an apt image for the elusive turns of a man's fate. This is the theme of Card 10.

The Wheel of Fortune is one of the few cards in the major arcana that does not have a human figure as a focal point. This is because its center is above the realm of man - in the higher levels (clouds) where the destinies of all are woven together in the tapestry of life. The tarot recognizes that each person sets his own path in life but is also subject to the larger cycles that include him. We experience chance events that appear to be accidents although they are part of the great plan.

In readings, the Wheel of Fortune can indicate a vision or realization that strikes with great force. If you've been struggling with a problem or tough situation, this card can signal that you will find the answer if you stand back and view everything from a larger perspective.

The Wheel of Fortune also represents unexpected encounters and twists of fate. You can't predict surprises; you can only be aware when one is circling around. Indeed, Card 10 often suggests wheel-like actions - changes in direction, repeating cycles and rapid movement. When the energy of the Wheel arrives, you will feel life speed up. You are caught in a cyclone that may deposit you anywhere. "Round and round and round she goes, and where she stops, nobody knows."

ACQUARIUS

Aquarius January 20 - February 18- Three of pentacles

Defined Meaning: In the opening of the film Mission Impossible, a crack team of specialists is working on a dangerous assignment. The members of the team are mapping out a strategy, coordinating resources and drawing on their skills and ingenuity to complete the mission. This is the Three of Pentacles in action: teamwork, planning and competence.

The Three of Pentacles is one of the cards in the Tarot that focuses on the group. (The Three of Cups and the Hierophant are the others.) As Pentacles are grounded and practical, this card represents a task-oriented team - people who are working cooperatively toward a common goal. There are few jobs that can be accomplished alone. We need the help of others to achieve our goals. Sometimes the Three of Pentacles is a sign that you will be more productive if you work with others. You don't have to do it all by yourself.

This card can also show a need for planning and preparation. Now is not the time to rush into something or begin a project with only a vague idea of what it's about. You need to think everything through, go over all the possibilities and make sure you work out the details. Do your homework, and your undertaking will flourish.

Another feature of the Three of Pentacles is competence - the ability to get the job done. How rare this is nowadays! This card tells you that you have the skills and knowledge you need. You can attract capable people and create a successful environment. Know that the situation is (or will be) in good hands, but be sure to concentrate on excellence in your work. Be proud of what you do and how you do it. Then you will accomplish your "impossible" mission.

PISCES

Pisces February 19 - March 20- Page of pentacles

Defined Meaning: The Page of Pentacles shows a young man who stands alone in a field full of freshly blossoming flowers. Behind him in the distance to his right is a grove of lush trees, probably fruit-bearing trees of some sort, and to his left lies a newly furrowed field which promises an abundant harvest. The Page walks slowly as though he were unaware of anything around him other than the golden coin in his hands, which he closely examines. The bright sky above him suggests that all is well in his world and that this is a tranquil moment spent planning his path towards future success.

The Page of Pentacles, like the pages of all the suits, is a card of new beginnings, of inspiration and the initial stages of a creative project or venture. Pentacles correspond to the alchemical element of earth, and in this sense the coin that the Page holds may symbolize the beginnings of sensual awareness not only in terms of money and its value but also in terms of a growing awareness of the importance of health and other material needs.

The Page of Pentacles is a messenger bringing you opportunities for prosperity. He delivers real chances to experience wealth, abundance, security and solid achievement - the wonders of the Pentacles suit. In your readings, this Page suggests that an opening may appear that promises enrichment, comfort, trust or the chance to make your dreams real. When you see such a chance, act on it!

Love, Peace and Vegetables

Recipes for Conscious Living

A Spiritual Inspiration, Meditation on and Guide to the Wonder of Live Food Cuisine Marcela Benson's Unique Coffee-Table

Style Book Offers Both Mouthwatering AND Soul Delight

By Marcela Benson, M.A.

Trying to categorize Marcela Benson's Love, Peace and Vegetables is nigh unto impossible...you could think of it as a beautiful coffee-table book filled with imaginative uplifting and eye-popping art. It's even reminiscent of the botanical treatises of the 19th century with loving graphic renderings of plants and vegetables. You might consider it a spiritual meditation and inspirational guide. Maybe it's a poetry book with its many lovely verses. Perhaps you might see it as a manifesto for the live food lifestyle and eating completely clean of all disempowering influences, with all the instructions on food preparation that implies. But mostly, there are the scrumptious, mouthwatering, astonishing recipes for filling your table with simple, but gourmet live food cuisine.

Marcela Benson's amazing Love, Peace and Vegetables is all of those things! Subtitled Recipes for Conscious Living, Love, Peace and Vegetables is meant to replenish your soul, not just your body!

This remarkable book celebrates the spiritual connection between what we put into our bodies and our spiritual essence in the highest, most blissful way. Love, Peace and Vegetables is the result of Marcela's journey to realization, beginning as a child in Buenos Aires, Argentina. With a mashup of Syrian and Israeli Jewish parentage, and the South American cosmopolitan upbringing of Buenos Aires, she was the embodiment of cross-cultural influences, embracing ritual, family and culture of all. But her family history and habits also marked her for something darker—obesity. At the age of twenty-five, she stood on a scale that showed her the terrible truth – she weighed 258 pounds!

As she recalls, "In that moment, I knew I had to choose between a life of obesity and illness or one of health and wellness. I knew I had to seek out wise teachers to show me how to break out of the patterns that had destroyed the health of so many of my family members. Luckily, I firmly believed I had the power to change my life and I chose to make drastic life-altering changes.”

Love, Peace and Vegetables assembles what she learned, so that she can share and pass it along to the world. Embracing a spiritual approach to conscious living and total immersion into the Live Food Lifestyle, Marcela is an elegant ambassador for the life she espouses.

This incredible book, filled with arresting art, poetry, spiritual inspiration, pristine eating food prep instruction never before assembled in one place, gorgeous photography of luscious dishes worthy of Gourmet Magazine, and hundreds of yummy recipes that will entice the pallet—is a one-of-a-kind labor of love. And it is a guidebook for self-love and a manual for adding more love into the world.

And when it specifically celebrates the food itself, Love, Peace and Vegetables offers:

- Instruction on cleaning, soaking and sprouting
- The secret natural ingredients that subtly influence the power of our food
- Inspirational and health-restoring meal plan menus
- Menus for Parties with Purpose

And, of course, recipes that cover:

- Liquids of all kinds
- Nut patés, spreads and rollups
- Soups, salads, wraps and sushi
- Hearty live fun foods (including rawvioli, pizzas and burgers!)
- Cooked vegan recipes
- Breads, chips and crackers
- Butter, cheese, jams and condiments
- Scrumptious live foods desserts

Marcela Benson’s Love, Peace and Vegetables: Recipes for Conscious

Living is a feast for the eyes, palette and the soul. It is available from Infinite Light Publishing, Amazon, and all major bookstores.

They Came: Beyond Déjà Vu

By Walter Zajac

In His Pain, This Child Drew Visions to Him of 2 Young Women Suffering Trauma & Loneliness— Visions of Real Instances Years BEFORE Those Women Were Born!

A Powerful Memoir Told as a Novel & Supernatural Thriller –

How Walter Zajac Discovered His Psychic Gifts

It's an origin story that is horrific in its intensity, a youngster at the dawning of his superpowers!

And when you read They Came - Beyond Déjà Vu you must remember that this “novel” is actually the true story of renowned psychic Walter Zajac! Positioned as fiction and couched in fictitious names, it doesn't really lessen the impact and tragedy of what he endured as an abandoned, orphaned, beaten and sexually-abused child in post-war Germany...and later in America.

It is a miracle he survived at all, but what is really astonishing about this story is how Zajac awakened to his incredible gifts as a psychic! With deeply realistic “dreams” about two young women, also suffering from their own traumas -- the 6-year-old Walter felt their pain. Only when he met them years later as a 44-year old adult, did he discover that these were actual scenes in their lives – but he experienced them YEARS BEFORE they were born! It took a psychotherapist who was the daughter of an accomplished Toltec shaman to explain to Walter that he wasn't crazy! He was just psychic!

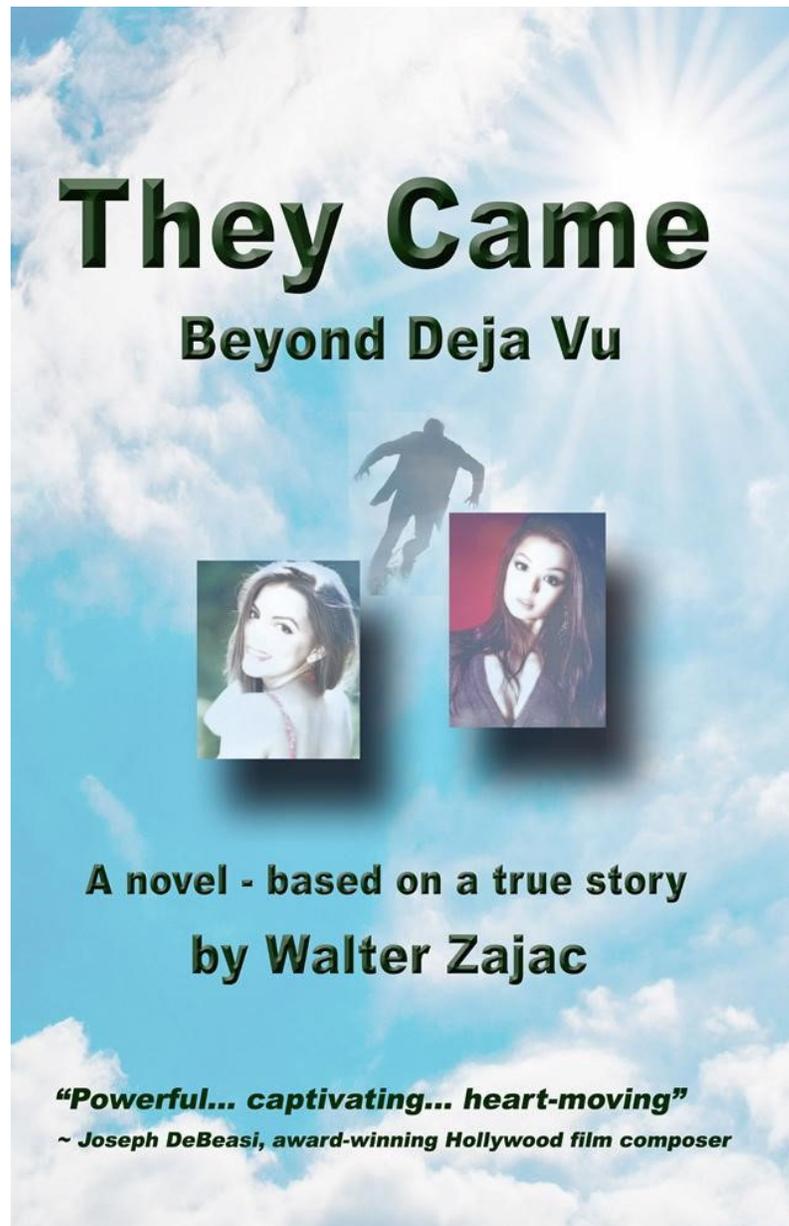

They Came - Beyond Déjà Vu is a wrenching read—a supernatural thriller—and probably worthy of a good film or mini-series. The young Walter, called Wolfgang in the book, is excited to be embarking on his first train ride on his own—not realizing that his dying mother (sans Wolfgang's absent/indolent/embittered/abusive father) has had no choice but to assign him over to an orphanage. But no one explains it to the child. He finds himself shocked, alone, incredibly lonely and at the mercy of a bully in a strange place housing many children left behind by fate in war-savaged Germany. A few friendly faces help him endure, but also his memory of his mother sustains him.

But these pervasive dreams of the two girls and of a faceless man in black calling and coming for him, keep him in fear, agitation or a strange heightened state. And the story doesn't end there, as he is adopted by an American military family that is as cruel, heartless and bullying as any villains in a superhero story.

How Wolfgang/Walter finds his way as an adult as the revelations unveil themselves is powerful and inspiring. Despite what he endured, he was able to find a path forward to help other people out of their worries and suffering with his incredible gifts.

For nearly 20 years, Walter Zajac has been hailed as one of the best psychics on the West Coast. As an acclaimed psychic medium, certified Tarot reader, NLP coach, Reiki Master and Love Coach, he has empowered and guided thousands through enlightening psychic readings, and inspiring coaching and healing sessions globally. His experience working in 12 different countries has given him keen insight into people's distinctions, commonalities and cultures. He continues to receive dreams and psychic visions that come true. And having suffered much as a child, he is especially intuitive about the pain and suffering that is hidden within others.

If you would like to interview Walter Zajac about They Came: Beyond Déjà Vu, and the personal experiences that inspired him to write it, please send an email with the name of the show, your contact information, a proposed date and time, and the calling details.

Sherry Gaba on Breaking the Cycle of Relationship Addiction, Codependency and Toxic Partnerships

Gaba, licensed psychotherapist, coach, author, and founder of Wakeup Recovery, formerly featured on VH1's Celebrity Rehab, brings her vast expertise and personal experience to those ready to exit the self-destructive cycle and create lasting, loving relationships

Romance and love addiction is a real thing. You may find yourself constantly in search of the next “love high,” even as the previous one ends...Fear being alone? Distraught at the idea of being single as you age? Jumping into the new one right on the heels of the last breakup. These might give you a hint you could have an addiction problem.

But it works the other way, too...are you consistently drawn to toxic partners who are emotionally (or even physically) abusive and manipulative? Are you so desperate to keep a relationship alive that you'll do almost anything to support your partner, becoming unintentionally co-dependent.

If you are ready to break out of these patterns, then Sherry Gaba is your guide!

Sherry is the one of the world's leading experts on this subject. Author of the bestselling book Love Smacked, you've seen her featured on VH1's Celebrity Rehab, CNN, Inside Edition, Access Live, E! News, and in Cosmopolitan, Women's World, the Los Angeles Times, Thrive Global, the New York Post, Marriage.com and Psychology Today. A licensed psychotherapist, life coach and founder of Wakeup Recovery, Sherry marries her vast knowledge of the addiction recovery process with her expertise in relationship coaching and counseling.

But she has a very personal reason for specializing in this area. She WAS a romance and love addict for most of the first 40 years of her life! Married four times, she was driven by the need for reassurance, comfort, safety and validation that she perceived a relationship offered. Her compulsion stemmed from being a premature baby placed in an incubator for weeks after birth. Without that initial bonding and supporting parenting, she suffered the abandonment that drives most people who are love addicted. Sherry's husbands included the abuser, the neglecter and the alcoholic.

Fortunately, she eventually sought a career in social work, earning a master's in her field, while also seeking support at Al-Anon, the organization that helps family members of alcoholics grow, heal and release their codependency. These all gave her new insights, starting her on the path of self-love, respect and independence that gave her special insight into what many of her clients were reporting in their disastrous relationships.

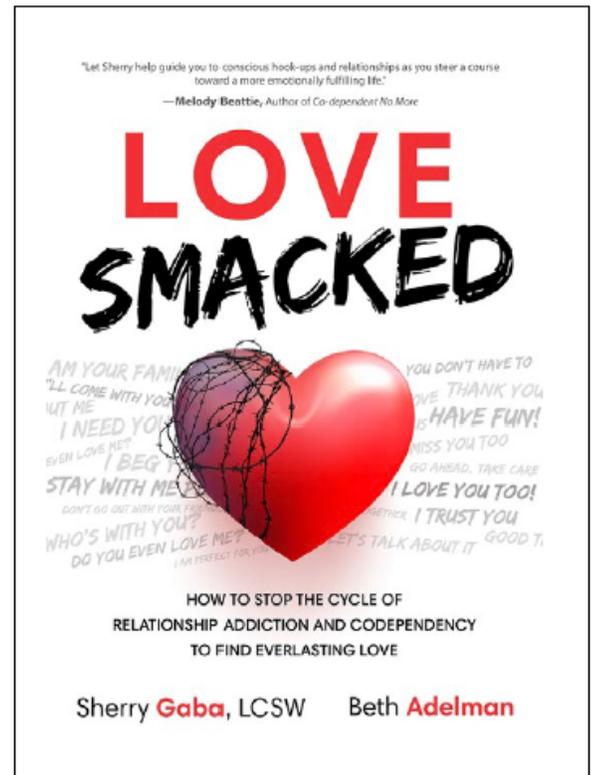

Today, she has very specific strategies that help break the cycle. Membership in her Wakeup Recovery program includes group coaching, video training and many other offerings that will help someone detach from the compulsive behavior that marks romance and love addiction, co-dependency and repeated engagement in toxic relationships. It provides strategies to modify you or, if you are in a relationship, into the right alignment for long-lasting love, to walk away if it isn't right and the way to identify when it is right—or least has the values-and-character match that portends potential success.

Want to know if you or your listeners are at risk of indulging in these self-destructive, obsessive love addictions or behaviors? Take Sherry's quiz and receive her FREE e-book Narcissistic Partners and Obsessive Love: <https://sherrygaba.com/npquiz>

Sherry guides her audience through such questions as:

- What is relationship addiction and what are a few of the signs?
- What are some of the reasons why some women—in today's world of greater independence—still feel their lives aren't complete without a man?
- What are some obvious co-dependency mistakes people make in relationships?
- What are some of the first steps to breaking free?
- What are some of the subtle signs that a partner may be luring you into a toxic relationship before you get fully invested?
- What are the differences between a healthy long-lasting relationship and one that is based on love-addiction?

Sherry Gaba gives people hope that everlasting love is possible for anyone willing to do the work that heals the old self-destructive patterns. Her guidance can reap infinite rewards. Sherry Gaba, LCSW

Licensed Psychotherapist, Life Coach

Biography

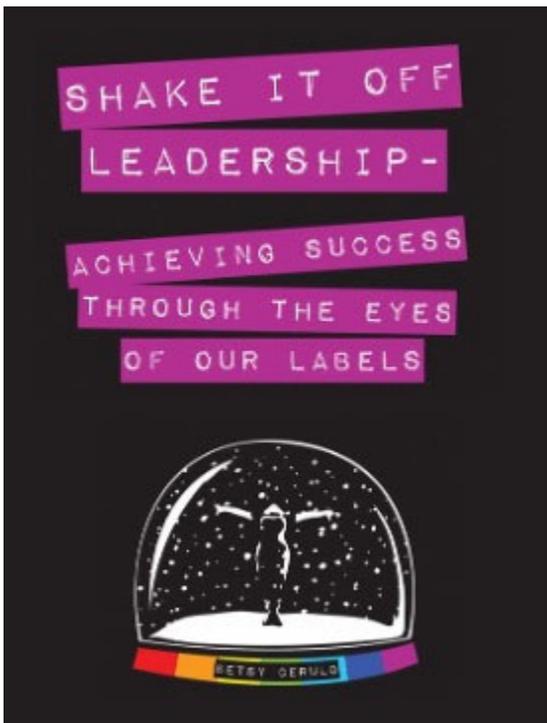

Sherry Gaba, LCSW, is a licensed psychotherapist and life coach who helps people cope with codependency, love addiction, toxic relationships, and mental health issues. Sherry is a single mother and once her daughter was old enough, Sherry returned to school to receive her Master of Social Work from the University of Southern California.

As a leading expert on addiction and recovery, Sherry's TV appearances include: VH1's Celebrity Rehab, CNN, Inside Edition, the Robert Irvine Show and Access Live, E! News, among others. She has been featured in Cosmopolitan, Women's World, the LA Times, Thrive Global, the New York Post, Marriage.com, Psychology Today, Zoosk and other leading publications. She has also been a guest on many SiriusXM radio shows and now hosts her own podcast, The Love Fix.

Sherry is the author of Love Smacked, in which Sherry addresses relationship addiction and codependency, and is a contributing writer to the book Chicken Soup for the Soul: Tough Times Tough People.

Sherry maintains a private practice and founder of Wake-Up Recovery an online group coaching program that applies the principals of positive psychology, law of attraction, and mindfulness for codependents, love addicts, and toxic relationships.

Shake It Off Leadership-

Achieving Success Through the Eyes of Our Labels

By Betsy Cerulo

Who Defines You? You or Others? Can You Choose Your Labels and Use Them to Empower Yourself and Your Business? YES! Betsy Cerulo Shows You How!

Are you ready to stop allowing others' perceptions and labels of you limit what you can accomplish? Have you had enough of the outright or subtle undermining of your career or self-esteem by the ways people "categorize" you or the way you categorize yourself?

Betsy Cerulo had her fill, and so she stepped up to claim her labels and make them her fuel for greater success!

And in her new book Shake It Off Leadership—Achieving Success Through the Eyes of Our Labels, she will gift you with the guidance on how she did it...and how it can transform your life and your business!

Betsy felt the sting of disempowering external perceptions early. Her mother made no effort to hide she favored the boys in the family over the girls, and that they could have nearly unlimited freedom, but the females had to live according to a specific standard. And then, in college, when she came out, after falling for one of her classmates, she began to experience the sting of unkind and discriminating labels. In business, as she tried to rise as a young executive search professional, she found her way blocked and her salary less simply because she was "a woman."

But with skill and determination, she built a hugely successful boutique professional staffing and executive search firm. AdNet/AccountNet, Advocates for Workplace Excellence and Equity. But along the way, she decided to throw off the limitations of those labels, embrace those she was proud of, and choose the labels that she wanted to define her!

Betsy won't put up with "the nonsense" she hears come out of the mouth of those who attempt to diminish women, the LGBTQ+ community and racially diverse people. She challenges them.

Instead of suffering the insulting brand of dyke or lesbian with a sneer, she decided to make her sexuality a proud hallmark of her success, attaining the first government 8A certification based on Gender and LGBT discrimination. This allows a company to bid for government contracts with less competition. Then, she went on to co-found the Maryland LGBT Chamber of Commerce and Maryland LGBT Foundation, built it into a robust organization that attracted many mainstream sponsors. As a woman-owned business, she fought the discrimination of banks that refused loans, and found those that would treat her with respect.

Betsy learned how to shake-off the slights, disappointments and roadblocks in building a successful business—not just the issues related to discrimination, but with all of the gumption, wisdom and courage it takes to create a thriving enterprise, with quality, happy, engaged staff and curation of clients that are an asset to the business. She's discerned a style of SHAKE IT OFF LEADERSHIP, which will empower any leader with the skills, wisdom and strength to successfully create or grow a business, while insuring balance and personal fulfillment.

Each chapter in Shake It Off Leadership provides lessons, new perspectives and an enriching Shake It Off tip at the end. Betsy's personal story is woven throughout as an inspiration for those who have struggled with the labels that have disempowered them.

Your listeners will find astute insights on every page. Every business can benefit from a leader who stands in her, his or their strength -- and who can spot and act on strengthening the weaknesses within themselves and their company—just as Betsy Cerulo has done.

Shake It Off Leadership—Achieving Success Through the Eyes of Our Labels is available for $19.95 on Amazon.com, $9.95 on Kindle and $7 as an audiobook.

The Gift of Shift

Discover the Key within to unlock Your Best Life By Ann Papayoti (with Tracey MacDonald)

The Gifts Just Keep on Coming...You Can Welcome Them Or Resist!

Recognizing and Embracing the Elegantly Wrapped Gift of Change and Adaptability Hidden in the Hardship and Challenge

Ann Papayoti has endured some of life's most brutal blows—her college best friend deliberately stealing her high school boyfriend; the loss of an infant child just shortly after he was thought to be out of danger, a belligerent and abusive husband, a child born with epilepsy and other neurological disorders, a family suicide, being bitten by a poisonous snake that resulted in months of chronic illness before being diagnosed, relinquishing a cherished foster teen whose actions threatened Ann's family, and much more...

And despite them all, Ann found the gift hidden within each of these experiences. The gift of choice in how to respond to the challenge.

In her new book, The Gift of Shift: Discover the Key Within to Unlock Your Best Life, written with fellow life coach Tracey MacDonald, Ann uses many of these experiences to show how one can open that gift lovingly. Instead of freezing up, becoming resistant or giving in to depression, resignation or other unhealthy emotions, one can choose a better, more life-affirming, adaptable approach that can lead to new possibilities and a better pathway forward.

Using "Gift" as the central theme of the book and each individual chapter, Ann relays incidences in her life that tested her at the deepest level, and how she rewrote her story to find the nugget of truth that provided hope, healing, resolve and wisdom.

Cleverly written, with charm and heart, the chapters include The Gift of a Band-Aid, The Gift of Charlie Brown, The Gift of Grits, The Gift of Buoyancy, and more. As she states, the gift of the book itself, is to give readers "a clearer picture on how to make shift happen for yourself. It starts with becoming aware of your thoughts, feelings and actions, and in time, the key to help you unlock a lighter, happier, and freer version of yourself."

Each chapter includes questions the reader can ask her or himself to explore a parallel experience or lessoneir own story for reexamination, under the new light of the Gift of Shift. The is written as a guide to make it easy to CHOOSE CHANGE!

Ann is an international life, leadership and relationship coach. She is an International Coach Federation Accredited Professional Certified Coach, and a member of the Association of Integrative Psychology. Dedicated to waking people up to living their best life by helping them untangle from their past, Ann further helps them align with their values and connect to their higher purpose. Ann inspires people by sharing her personal experiences of loss, transition and triumph. Ann is especially known for the personal and compassionate way she guides people to their own insights and growth.

The Gift of Shift is Ann's gift to those who are struggling with life's unforeseen consequences, and fear what is ahead. She shows how easy change can be once you embrace the gift within the challenge, and set your course for a lighter heart, an alternative emotion, and a surrender within the moment.

The Gift of Shift: Discover the Key Within to Unlock Your Best Life is available on Amazon.com for $13.99 and on Kindle for $6.99.

Marilyn Monroe - From Tragedy to Triumph

How Marilyn Monroe's Legacy Helps with Mental Illness and Addiction 60 Years Later

No doubt you've heard of Marilyn Monroe. She was a Hollywood glamour girl and mega movie star; She will be forever tied to President, John F. Kennedy, and known all over the world for her infamous, "Happy Birthday Mr. President" tribute. She is also responsible for all us girls believing that "diamonds are a girl's best friend." ... But do you know she was so much more than that? Marilyn was a strong and resilient human being! She overcame the odds and kept seeking treatment through her own personal growth, even though the outcome ended the star's short life at 36 years old.

For your program, let transformational leader and media executive, and founder of LifeBites Global, Nina Boski, whose mission is to get people inspired by their life, be a dynamic guest for your show who can talk about "All Things Marilyn," and shed light on this important subject around mental health and addiction. By sharing Marilyn's story, Nina's hope is to inspire people to build up their own resilience for their future and be determined to create a vision for themselves that can propel their life forward, especially during this pandemic and beyond.

Nina is producing two projects for Marilyn's 60th anniversary, Marilyn: Behind the Icon, a dramatic podcast about the entire life of Marilyn (behindtheicon.com) and a TV docuseries that deals with the mental health and addiction and the correlation between the two (season 2 launches Feb 22, 2022), along with the actual investigation of the star's death, breaking down for the first time, fact from probable theory to outlandish rumor. Most of the biographies on Marilyn up until this point, blend all of these elements together and claim it as fact. This 22-expert production make this complex story more easily digestible for the average listener or audience member and allows us to set the record straight on the decades of rumors and lies. In addition to Marilyn's story, the TV docuseries highlights the celebrity of today who deals with some of the same things Marilyn did back in 1962, not only with the price of fame with addiction and mental health issues, but by being "Propped Up for Profit" by the celebrities' handlers and even loved ones. Look at the more recent story behind Brittany Spears, who was compared to Marilyn Monroe many times.

This unique story gives people a window to look mental health up close and personal! Nina has spent over 6 years researching Marilyn. She has realized that the icon's life is filled with inspiration if we search for the teachable moments that can help people heal their lives. Nina's goal is to make a positive impact in the media with stories that make a difference. The Marilyn Monroe story unfortunately is not unique, but the lessons we can garner from it are invaluable. This story angle allows the true Marilyn, the core of who she was, about transformation and helping fellow mankind be at the heart of her true legacy to be remembered. Marilyn Monroe is very much a cultural phenomenon that attracts millions of fans across the globe each day. Marilyn was not just a beautiful, glamorous movie star but was a soul on this earth who, just like all of us, wanted to love and be loved.

This fascinating podcast and TV docuseries is one of the most comprehensive of its time. With 22 renowned and credible experts on the investigation and many valuable life lessons to be learned from Marilyn's life. As a media maven, and energy coach, Nina Boski has global success, speaking to millions of people around the world, inspiring and transforming audiences to live a life that dares you, inspires you to dream big, get out there and do it and create balance to just be! Nina is a natural in front of a small group of people or in large group settings. Her goal is to transform as well as entertain audiences all while getting people to WAKE UP to their life! Nina commands an audience with her powerful presence and fun, uplifting and sometimes humorous messages of life, business and media.

The journey of the Fools: Level I

The first card in Tarot, card zero, is known as the Fool, and the Fool's Journey is one from the beginning to the end. From the first card in the deck to the last card in the deck, each card has a purpose and expresses an idea, whether independently or in concert with others in a spread.

Deep into the mystical realms of the Tarot, Aeson will guide you in accessing your psychic intuition to find answers using the cards. We will begin with the history of the tarot deck covering each of the 78 messengers of the Major and Minor Arcana, to understand the historical meaning of each card, and culminate in applying this understanding with a modern interpretation of three basic Tarot spreads: Celtic Cross, Three-Card, and Lady's Fan.

This course is comprised of four separate classes, usually spread over four days, weeks, or months.

This course includes:

Intro to tarot, Understand the Major Arcana and learning the Three-Card Spread

Cups and Wands, and learning the Lady Fan Spread

Swords and Pentacles, and learning the Celtic Cross

Consolidation and Practice of Skills

Course material will be provided including a workbook, printouts of the presentation, and a course manual.

Digital

Digital access will be given after registration and payment. Printed copies will be distributed at the beginning of the class.

Certificates indicating your Level I, understanding of the Tarot, and comprehension of the messages will be given at the end of this course. This class also gives you 30 days of email support and guidance by Aeson Knight.

Certified Master Psychic Aeson Knight has been working with the tarot for over 30 years and was certified in 2003.

Ostara Live Chat

Let's light the lighthouse candle send good energy out and have a chat, share some ideas and seeds we like to plan in our life this year.

Ostara is the spring fertility festival that honors Eostre, goddess of the dawn. (Her name means East, from where the sun rises.) It's a time to plant the seeds for what you want to grow throughout the year.

In modern pagan and Wiccan tradition, Ostara is the time when the maiden Goddess meets her reborn consort in the form of Pan or the Horned God.
